

2018 Summer Reading

Choose one work from the list provided and complete your choice of three activities from the chart.

Reading List

Eleanor and Park, Rainbow Rowell

Salt to the Sea, Ruta Sepetys

The Curious Incident of the Dog in the Night-Time, Mark Haddon

The Hate U Give, Angie Thomas*

*Recommended for 11th and 12th graders

Activities

Make a web of connections you made while reading this novel between this story and your experiences and/or current events.	Create a list of at least 5 interview questions for one of the characters in the book and answer each question as you think the character would answer it. Questions must be open-ended; answer should be 3-6 sentences.	Write a critique of the book and or one chapter of the book. Be sure to give examples from the text to support your opinions (at least one page).
Retell a major event from the story from a different character's point of view (at least one page).	Create a piece of art that depicts or symbolizes this novel.	Write a sequel or prequel to the book (at least one page).
Explain what you think the author's purpose in writing this book was. Provide evidence. (At least one page)	Create a playlist of 10 songs to serve as a soundtrack for the novel. Write an explanation for each song explaining how it complements or illustrates the novel.	Rewrite the story, adding yourself as a character and include how you would solve the conflict (at least one page).